The screenshot shows the homepage of the International Journal of Astrobiology. At the top, the journal title is displayed in a large font against a dark blue background with star-like patterns. Below the title is a search bar with the placeholder text "Search International Journal of Astrobiology" and a magnifying glass icon. To the right of the search bar are two icons: a bookmark icon and a bell icon (notification), both enclosed in a red rectangular box. Below the search bar are two buttons: "Submit your article" and "Information". A horizontal navigation menu is located below the search bar, with "Journal home" highlighted in blue. Other menu items include "Latest issue", "FirstView", "All issues", "Open access", and "Most cited".

Editorial board

International Journal of Astrobiology is the peer-reviewed forum for practitioners in this exciting interdisciplinary field. Coverage includes cosmic prebiotic chemistry, planetary evolution, the search for planetary systems and habitable zones, extremophile biology and experimental simulation of extraterrestrial environments, Mars as an abode of life, life detection in our solar system and beyond, the search for extraterrestrial intelligence, the history of the science of astrobiology, as well as societal and educational aspects of astrobiology. Occasionally an issue of the journal is devoted to the keynote plenary research papers from an international meeting.

On the right side of the main content area, there is a red-bordered box containing the text "Register for content alerts" in white font on a dark blue background with star patterns. Below this box is a grey box containing the number "1.598".

The screenshot displays the 'My Core' user interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for 'Browse subjects', 'What we publish', 'Services', and 'About Cambridge Core'. On the right side of this bar, there is a dropdown menu for 'Access provided by', a user profile icon, a blue 'My account' button (highlighted with a red box), and a shopping cart icon labeled 'Cart (0)'. Below the navigation bar is a breadcrumb trail: 'Home > My Core > My account > My searches'. The main content area features a dark banner with the text 'My Core'. On the left, a sidebar menu lists various account options: 'My account', 'Home', 'My account settings', 'My alerts', 'My bookmarks', 'My content', 'My searches' (highlighted with a red box), 'My order history', and 'My societies'. The main content area is titled 'My searches' and contains the text 'Below is a list of your saved searches.' followed by 'Select all | Deselect all'. A single search entry is listed: 'Saved Search 1' with the search term 'Art'. To the right of this entry are three circular icons: a magnifying glass, an eraser, and an 'X'. At the bottom right of the search list area is a button labeled 'Remove selected searches'. A red arrow points from the 'My account' button in the top right to the 'My searches' option in the left sidebar.
