Dogs Now Welcome At Domestic Violence Shelter Thanks To Heroic Pooch

The Huffington Post

Jan. 14, 2012

A Great Dane who saved his owner's life by protecting her from her boyfriend's physical abuse has now inspired the local domestic violence shelter to allow companion pets, KCTV 5 News Kansas City reports.

The Rose Brooks Center, a domestic violence shelter in Kansas City, Missouri, became the first shelter in the area to accept pets after receiving a desperate call from a woman whose boyfriend had attempted to beat her with a hammer, KCTV reported.

The woman told emergency hotline operators that she escaped death only because her Great Dane had jumped on top of her and absorbed most of the blows. Undeterred, the boyfriend threw both the woman and her dog out a second-story window, and the two were seriously injured.

She refused to accept a space at The Rose Brooks Center, however, when she learned that they didn't accommodate pets.

"She was not going to leave her pet alone with [the boyfriend]," Susan Miller, the Rose Brook Center's chief executive officer, told KCTV.

Miller explained that 40 percent of woman who call the shelter for accommodations turn down rooms because they don't want to leave their pets, choosing instead to live in cars or stay in abusive situations.

"They provide so much comfort, and to have to leave that pet behind is so heartbreaking," Miller told the station. "It has become abundantly clear that the incredible therapeutic benefits that pets can have on a family greatly outweigh the cost and inconvenience of housing them."

According to a national survey of battered women published in Society and Animals, up to 85 percent of women entering domestic abuse shelters reported that an abusive partner had threatened, injured, or killed a family pet. For 25 percent of those woman, concern for their pets' safety informed their decision about staying in the relationship or leaving.

Similarly, according to the ASPCA, 88 percent of families that have experienced incidents of physical abuse of children also had records of violence against animals.

The Rose Brooks Center now accepts companion animals at the shelter and is also planning to add 25 beds in a renovation expected to cost around $140,000.

2011 年 12 月 29 日及 30 日各有以下兩則新聞：

『2011 年即將進入尾聲，台灣勞工陣線 29 日在立法院舉行記者會，公布今年勞工最憤怒的 5 件事，包括「物價漲、薪水不漲」、「無薪假橫行」、「建教生權益保障法沒過」、「職業安全衛生法被擋」、「有薪照顧假跳票」。勞工陣線秘書長孫友聯以「無薪假」為例，引述一位失業勞工的故事，指台灣各大科技廠商大放無薪假時，政府卻束手無策。他說：『(原音)有一位失業勞工口袋裡面只剩下 450 元，他打電話來問勞陣，「如果我一家 3 口去看醫生，就必須要花掉 450 元，還是我把這 450 元留在口袋，讓我有 1 天半的溫飽？」這就是他們的心聲，台灣勞工 2011 最恨的事情，就是當他們碰到無薪假的苦難的時候，政府是束手無策的。』』

『關於無薪休假，勞委會強調，為保障勞工權益，已啟動通報機制，要求各地方勞工行政主管機關積極查察，「不可能也不會允許雇主片面實施無薪休假，如有違反相關規定者均立即查處，並督責改善。」』

據報載，2011年底，由國家安全會議策劃的「打造低碳太平島」計畫，在太平島由海巡署南巡局局長主持啟用典禮，包括太陽光電系統、太陽能熱水系統及節能省電電氣設備正式啟用。國安會認為，此舉象徵我國對抗暖化決心，更以再生綠能軟實力，彰顯南沙主權。尤其，馬總統主持南海政策會議裁示「打造低碳太平島，彰顯南沙護主權；用積極作為永續經營南海，節能減碳因應全球暖化」；由原本每年排碳七百五十六噸，至每年可減碳三百廿九噸，減碳率高達百分之四十四。配合島上相關耗能設備更換為節能型，一年可省下新台幣近四百七十三萬元發電成本。

請針對此則報導的內容，從(1)臺灣節能減碳政策與具體措施，以及(2)臺灣對於南海主權之相關政策的觀點，作出評析，提出你的看法或建言。(25%)

行政院大陸委員會在2010年9月對外宣布，關於第五次「江陳會談」簽署的兩岸經濟合作架構協議(ECFA)之生效事宜，我方業已完成相關法定程序及配套準備作業，兩岸經濟合作架構協議自2010年9月12日起生效。兩岸經濟合作架構協議的簽署，更說明了，只要雙方秉持「正視現實、開創未來；擱置爭議、追求雙贏」的原則，兩岸絕對有足夠的智慧，求同存異，共創雙贏，為兩岸人民謀求最大的福祉。試闡述，兩岸經濟合作架構協議(ECFA)之生效，對於我國經濟貿易的影響如何？25%
